ABANDONED WRECK

CAP. 196A,
R.E. 1980-1990.
7 of 1990.

[17th April, 1990]

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Abandoned Wreck Act.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:-

“abandoned wreck” means any wreck which has remained continuously upon the sea bed within the limits of the country of Belize for a period of fifty years or upwards before being brought to shore;

“Authority” means the Abandoned Wreck Authority established under section 4 of this Act;

“Minister” means the Minister for the time being responsible for Archaeology;

“prospector” means any person or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, with whom the Minister has entered into an agreement under the provisions of this Act, and shall be deemed to include the agents, licensees and servants of a prospector;

“salvage” includes all expenses properly incurred by the salvor in the performance of salvage operations;

“wreck” includes jetsam, flotsam, lagan and derelict found in, or on the shores of, the sea or any tidal water, and any other article found in such wreck.

3. All abandoned wreck, however situate, whether upon any land or in any river, stream or water course or under the territorial waters of Belize, vest absolutely in the Government of Belize. Vesting in the Government of Belize of all abandoned wreck.

4.-(1) There shall be established an authority to be known as the “Abandoned Wreck Authority” which shall be composed of the following- Abandoned Wreck Authority.

- (a) the Chief Executive Officer to the Ministry responsible for the Environment, who shall be the Chairman;
- (b) the Director of Museums;
- (c) the Fisheries Administrator;
- (d) the Harbour Master; and
- (e) four other persons appointed by the Minister.

(2) The Authority shall advise the Minister on all matters relating to marine archaeology and the salvaging of abandoned wreck.

(3) The members referred to in subsection (1) (e) above-

- (a) shall hold office for such period as may be specified in the instruments appointing them;
- (b) may be removed at any time by the Minister for good and sufficient cause;

(c) may be paid such fees for their services as the Minister of Finance may determine.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Authority may regulate its own procedure.

Minister may enter into agreement with prospector.

5.-(1) It shall be lawful for the Minister, in any case in which he deems it to be in the public interest so to do, and after consultation with the Authority, to enter into an agreement with any prospector licensing such prospector to prospect for, salve and bring to shore any abandoned wreck.

(2) Where in any case the Minister considers or is advised by the Authority that the finder of any abandoned wreck is not a suitable person to salve and bring to shore such abandoned wreck, or the Minister does not deem it to be in the public interest to enter into an agreement with the finder of any abandoned wreck under subsection (1) of this section, the Minister may pay to such finder such reward as he may, after consultation with the Minister of Finance in each case, determine and the Minister may enter into an agreement with any suitable person to salve and bring to shore such abandoned wreck.

(3) Every agreement under this section shall be entered into between the Minister acting for and on behalf of the Government of Belize and the prospector concerned under their respective hands and seals.

(4) Every person who applies to enter into an agreement with the Minister under the provisions of this section shall pay to the Government of Belize in advance such fee, not being less than five thousand dollars, as may be specified by the Minister by regulations made under this Act.

Terms and conditions of agreement.

6.-(1) The Minister may, in any agreement made under the provisions of section 5 of this Act, grant to a prospector a licence to prospect for, work, salve and bring to shore any abandoned wreck within any defined area of the sea bed within the limits of Belize for such period as may be specified in such agreement.

(2) Every such agreement-

- (a) shall specify what proportion of any abandoned wreck brought to shore shall be returned (subject to the terms thereof) to the prospector;
- (b) may provide that at the option of the Minister, the Government of Belize shall retain all or any articles recovered upon payment to the prospector of the due percentage of the appraised value thereof; and
- (c) may specify what proportion (if any) of the agreed costs of salvage shall be payable by the prospector and by the Government of Belize respectively.

(3) It shall be a term of every such agreement that the prospector shall waive any right of salvage whatsoever which might otherwise arise in his favour in consequence of his bringing to shore any abandoned wreck found within the area specified in such agreement.

(4) It shall be a term of every such agreement that the prospector shall employ such methods and submit to such measures of inspection and supervision and shall employ such equipment in and about the salvage of any abandoned wreck as may be required by the Minister after consultation with the Authority.

(5) Every such agreement shall contain provisions for-

- (a) the revocation of the licence granted thereby;
- (b) the preservation of the abandoned wreck;

- (c) the arbitration in Belize of all questions and differences arising between the Minister and the prospector;
- (d) the interpretation of such agreement according to the laws of Belize; and
- (e) all such other matters as appear to the Minister to be required in the public interest.

(6) It shall be a term of every such agreement that a duly qualified and experienced public officer designated by the Minister shall be present at all stages of the salvage of any abandoned wreck.

Notice of agreement to be published in the Gazette.

7. Whenever the Minister has entered into an agreement under section 5 of this Act, he shall cause notice thereof to be published in the Gazette. Such notice shall contain a description of the wreck and of the marks or features (if any) by which it may be identified.

Custody of abandoned wreck.

8.-(1) Every person bringing to shore within Belize abandoned wreck, and whether or not in pursuance of an agreement made under the provisions of this Act, shall forthwith report the same to the Chairman of the Authority and thereafter deposit the same for safe custody in such place and manner as the said Chairman, with the approval of the Minister, may direct in writing.
